SENATOR KNOX FOR PRESIDENT

Pennsylvania Senator's Boom
Formally Launched.

ROOSEVELT IS ELIMINATED

Politicians Confident That the Chief Executive Will Not Again Be a Candidate—Southern Democrats Are Incensed at Bryan's Attitude.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania is now definitely in the race for the Republican nomination for president, and conferences among leaders of the great parties have settled a few things to the satisfaction of observing politicians in congress. One is that no circumstance can arise which will induce President Roosevelt to be a candidate for the nomination for president for a third term.

Even leading Republicans in the senate who have harbored some doubts on this point are now satisfied that Mr. Roosevelt will not make the race. Just what it is that has brought conviction to their minds is not disclosed, but it is believed that something that has been said by the president in private conferences at the White House has changed the opinions which many senators have had on the subject.

Another point is that leading Democrats from the South are resenting the visit here of William J. Bryan dur-

BILLS IN THE SENATE

Nearly One Thousand Measures Introduced.

REFERRED TO COMMITTEES

Almost All of the Bills Presented Were Considered in the Preceding Congress—Some of the More Important Measures.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Nearly 1,000 bills have been introduced in the senate and all of them were referred to committees, where they will be taken for consideration after the new senators shall be given committee assignments. Almost all of these bills were considered in the last congress and most of them are private pension bills.

The whole number introduced in the senate of the Fifty-ninth congress was 8,637 and before the Christmas holidays it is probable that at least half of them will again be introduced and referred to committees.

Among the more important measures introduced were the following:

By Senator Fulton—Amending the railroad rate law in such a manner that a change of tariff filed with the interstate commerce commission cannot go into effect where objection is made until the commission has declared the rate fair.

By Senator Burks—Providing for the teaching of agriculture in normal schools; free postage on reading matter mailed to the blind, and prohibiting telegraph and express companies from transmitting returns pertaining to gambling.

Would Repeal Timber and Stone Act.

By Senator Hansbrough—Repealing the timber and stone act and providing for the sale of timber on public lands; also a bill giving homestead entrymen the right to be absent from their homesteads during four winter months.

By Senator Frye—To reorganize the lifesaving service so that it shall consist of superintendents of districts, keepers of stations and members of crews.

By Senator Heyburn—Bills providing for the purchase of public building grounds in Washington; the establishment of land courts and appellate land courts; the establishment of a national board of corporations and a department of mines and placing in the capital building of each state a model of the naval vessel which has been named after that state.

By Senator La Follette—Requiring that railroad rates shall be fixed so as only to yield a fair return on the valuation of a road's property.

By Senator Lodge—Regulating the salaries of inspectors of customs and others connected with the customs service. Mr. Lodge also reintroduced his measure presented in the last congress in regard to desecrations of the United States flag and child labor.

By Senator Nelson—Extending the free delivery service to all towns having a postal revenue of $8,000.

CONTROL OF CORPORATIONS

Senator McCumber Introduces a Bill With That Object in View.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Senator McCumber of North Dakota has introduced a bill which embodies his ideas concerning the control of corporations doing an interstate business. This bill provides that any corporation doing an interstate business may take out a national incorporation but does not make such action mandatory. In this way he expects, he says, to separate the sheep from the goats, and "to gradually have the most substantial of corporations acting under a national charter, the requirements of which will be a guaranty of their wholesome business methods." The control he proposes to institute for these corporations is similar to that now exercised by the government over national banks. In addition his measure provides against the watering of stock. This bill was referred to the committee on interstate commerce.

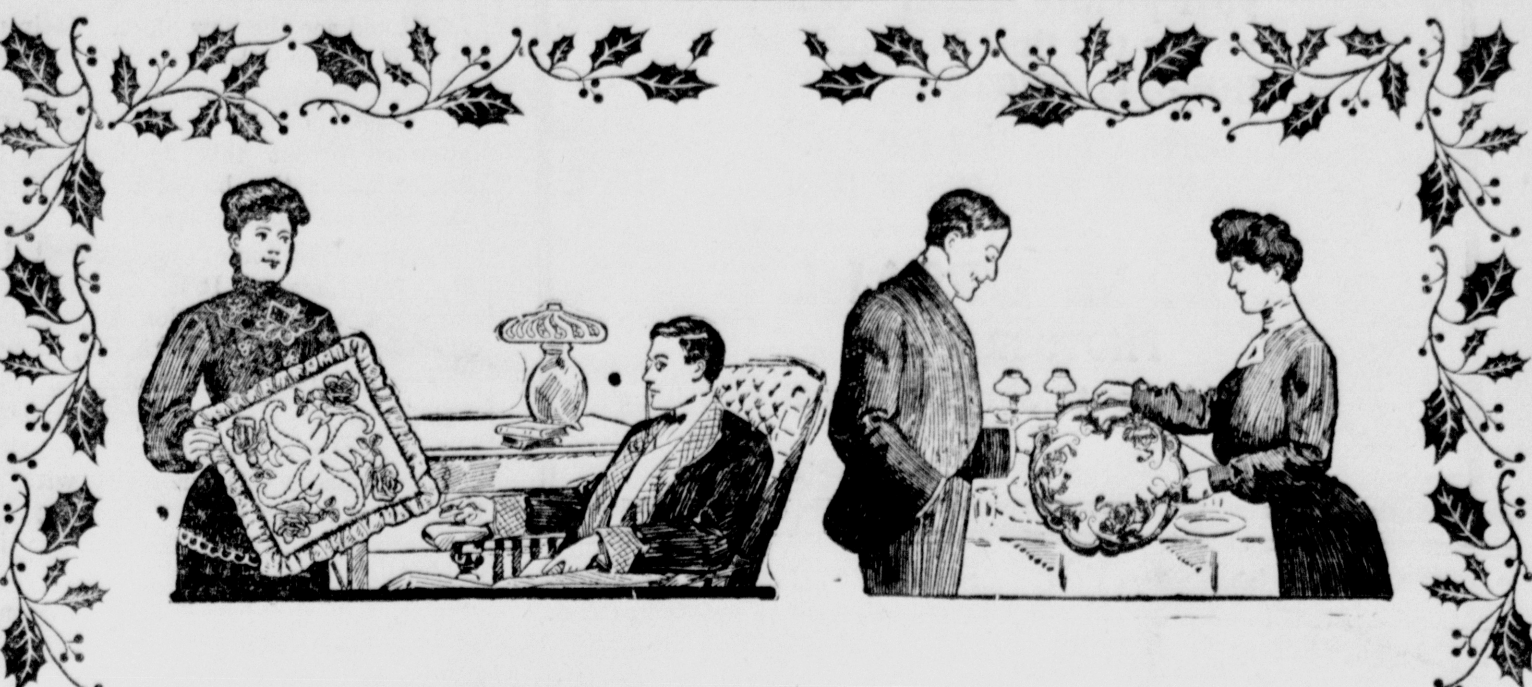

JUDGE HARNEY IS DEAD.

Noted Montana Jurist Expires of Cerebral Hemorrhage.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 5.—Judge E. W. Harney, aged forty-six years, died suddenly of cerebral hemorrhage. Judge Harney occupied the district bench of Silver Bow county during the Heinze Amalgamated litigation. It was upon an allegation that Judge Harney had been unduly influenced that the Amalgamated attorneys obtained a new trial of the Minnie Healey case. Judge Harney soon after charged that A. J. Shores, Charles A. Clark and others, acting in the interest of the Amalgamated company, had offered him a bribe of $200,000 if he would grant a new trial in the case.

Johnson—That man in the arbor making love is a divinity student.

Parker—Yes, I know, but who is the divinity?—New York Mail.

Art Needlework makes the most of Christmas gifts

This is true for several reasons. First, never a lady had so much that she did not appreciate another piece; she will derive much use from such a gift and yet will keep it a long time and remember your thoughtfulness, then she will appreciate it because it is one of the things that she seldom feels like purchasing for herself and she receives them so gratefully. Think about this.

FEARED THE BLACK HAND

Deaf Mute Shoots His Father and Ends His Own Life.

New York, Dec. 5.—Insane, it is said, from the belief that the Black Hand was conspiring to kill his parents and kidnap him, John Ingebrand, Jr., attempted to murder his father, John Ingebrand of Mount Vernon. After his parents had fought desperately to tear the revolver from his grasp, he fired a bullet into his own head and dropped dead.

Young Ingebrand was a deaf mute. The bullet he fired at his father entered the latter's head back of the right ear and came out of the right cheek. Mr. Ingebrand was sitting in his bedroom talking to his wife when his son walked in and without warning fired at him. Despite his wound he and Mrs. Ingebrand fought with the frenzied mute, who managed to drag them into an adjoining room. Father, mother and son fell to the floor, but the latter wrenched his right arm loose and sent a bullet into his brain.

Mr. Ingebrand, who is sixty-two years old, is a retired merchant of Manhattan. He will recover.

THREE NEGROES KILLED.

More Than a Score of Other Persons Injured in Train Wreck.

Baltimore, Dec. 5.—A rear-end collision occurred at Hanover, near this city. An eastbound Washington-Baltimore express ran into an accommodation train about to leave Hanover. Garfield Brown, William Parker and an unidentified man, all colored, are dead and at least twenty-nine persons are known to be more or less seriously injured, a few of them possibly fatally. Perhaps a score of others were slightly hurt. The dead were all trackmen employed by the railroad company.

The engineer of the express says that the automatic block signal in use by the railroad showed him a white signal, indicating a clear track. When examined by railroad officials soon after the disaster, this same signal is said to have shown red.

The dead and injured were brought to this city and the latter were sent to hospitals.

JURY NOT YET CHOSEN.

Selection of Men to Try George A. Pettibone Not Concluded.

Boise, Ida., Dec. 5.—At the evening session of the court engaged in selecting a jury to try George A. Pettibone, after Clem Doolittle had been excused, Benjamin A. Stahl, a prospector, aged sixty-nine years, was passed for cause by both sides.

In using its fifth peremptory challenge the state excused T. C. Rawlins, who had been passed for cause. The defense offered no objection to the state's challenge of John I. Shields, a laborer, who said that he had never read the newspapers. The next talesman called was J. H. Fraser, a law student residing at Meridian. Both sides accepted him. The defense used its fifth peremptory challenge in excusing George Maxwell. Charles Yarrington was called to the jury box and court then adjourned.

The occasion was a dinner given by Former Representative Joseph C. Sibley of Pennsylvania to the Pennsylvania delegation in congress.

TWO BOYS DROWNED.

Minnesota Farmer Recovers Bodies of His Sons.

Flyscan, Minn., Dec. 5.—Two young lives were lost at Lake Lily. The victims were sons of Frank Wesley, a farmer living on the bank of the lake, and their ages were eight and ten years, respectively.

The lads were skating just before dark and broke through the ice, going down in five feet of water. The father recovered the bodies with a pole after he was attracted to the lake by their screams.

The boys were under the water ten minutes before the father reached the spot, and the attempt to resuscitate them was not successful.

THREE WHITE MEN KILLED

Freight Train Goes Through a Trestle Near Blairs, S. C.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 5.—Three white men were killed and six freight cars were wrecked as the result of a derailment of a Southern railway freight train near Blairs, a station about thirty-five miles from Columbia.

The train was crossing a trestle over a creek near the station when six cars crashed to the bottom, tearing down the trestle. The dead are:

Eugene McQueen, mill operative; Jim McQueen, a brother, Union, S. C.; Will Gray, Union, S. C.

The presence of these men on the train was not known to the crew.

GUILTY WOMAN MUST DIE.

But Her Husband Is Sentenced to Prison for Life.

Monte Carlo, Dec. 5.—After a speedy trial before the superior court of Monaco, Vere St. Leger Gould and his wife, Marie, were convicted of the murder of Emma Levin here last summer. The court found Mrs. Gould was the chief instigator of the crime and sentenced her to death by the guillotine, and that Gould was less responsible because under the influence of liquor at the time the murder was committed and sentenced him to imprisonment for life.

Great crowds which had gathered without the building received the announcement of the conviction with great excitement, applause following the rendering of the verdict by the court.

The trial of the Goolds consumed less than three days. It attracted attention all over the world because of the enormity of the crime, the manner in which it was committed and the dramatic arrest of the principals, while seeking to escape with a trunk containing portions of the body in their possession.

Gould and his wife left Monte Carlo early last August, going to Marseilles. A hotel porter in that city noticed blood oozing from a trunk which the two had brought with them and when they drove off with the trunk he notified the police and their arrest followed.

Gould confessed that he committed the murder and that his wife had nothing to do with it. The police did not put much faith in his story and as the case was presented to the court his wife was shown to be the real instigator.

The evidence went to show that Emma Levin, who was possessed of considerable jewelry and some money had been invited to visit the Goolds, who were in needy circumstances. There she was killed and later a quantity of her jewelry was found in the possession of Gould and his wife. Emma Levin's body was dismembered and placed in a trunk and valise, which the murderers were trying to dispose of when the crime was discovered.

IN HANDS OF A RECEIVER.

Court Will Place Jamestown Exposition Company.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 5.—Following an all-day hearing in the United States circuit court, Judge Waddill decided to place the Jamestown Exposition company in the hands of a receiver. He deferred action in naming the receiver, but designated President Harry St. George Tucker and Director General Alvah H. Martin to take charge of the affairs of the company pending permanent appointments.

It is understood that the court will name three receivers, one to represent the stockholders, one to represent the bondholders and the government, and a third to represent general creditors.

Costly Fire in Colorado.

Durango, Colo., Dec. 5.—Fire that started in the basement of the Stern & Morris dry goods store here caused a loss estimated at $175,000.

SENATOR P. C. KNOX.

ing the opening of congress, and what he has had to say about party matters and issues of the time.

The Democratic leaders from the South are charging that Mr. Bryan has made another blunder, such as he made when he came here and interfered with his party's policies in the matter of the ratification of the treaty with Spain.

These Southern Democrats are now denouncing Bryan's latest declarations regarding financial legislation. The party members in both houses are split over this question, some of them agreeing with Mr. Bryan's declaration that there should be a system of guaranteeing bank deposits, while others assert that the party in the senate at least will oppose that plan with all its power.

The boom of Senator Knox of Pennsylvania for the presidency was formally launched at a notable banquet in Washington, when the Pennsylvania Republican congressional delegation placed itself squarely on record in favor of the Pennsylvania senator as President Roosevelt's successor.

The Steeplejack.

The work of the steeplejack is greatly overrated, and the courage of the individual is not what it is cracked out to be. An old sailor said: "There's the steeple, on a firm foundation, as steady as a rock and pointing always straight to the sky. It may sway a trifle in a high wind, but such a movement is imperceptible to the jack, who ascends by means of ropes and scaling ladders and is perfectly safe if he is a careful man. Where would a steeplejack be on a full rigged ship with the wind a gale and the yardarms beating the waves at every roll? How would he feel if sent aloft at such a time to reef the main skysail? He'd be only about 150 feet above deck, but the mast would be waving through the air like a witch's wand with four contrary motions—port and starboard, fore and aft. Imagine him out on the end of the spar, just below the main truck, holding on by his belly, feet and hands frozen, trying to take in sail! Why, if the poor devil managed to hold on, with the mate below bellowing threats at him, he'd never be able to get down to the deck again without breaking his neck. Steeplejacking? Dead easy."—New York Press.

Awful.

A young lady of eighteen was engaged to be married to a gentleman of thirty-six. Her mother, having noticed her low spirits for some time, inquired the reason.

"Oh, dear, mamma," replied the young lady, "I was thinking about my husband being twice my age."

"That's very true, but he's only thirty-six."

"He's only thirty-six now, dear mamma, but when I'm sixty—"

"Well?"

"Oh, dear! Why, then he'll be 120!"

EXPLORING OF BRAZIL

George M. Boynton to Face Peril In Amazon Forests.

FIVE YEARS FOR THE TASK.

Young Explorer Will Head Big Expedition Into Tangled Jungles Never Penetrated by White Men—Birds and Animals to Be Collected and Country's Advantages Studied

Penetrating Brazilian forests never before trodden by white men, cutting across the very heart of darkest South America, George Melville Boynton, the explorer, with a small group of fellow scientists and students, will spend the next five years exploring the vast tracts of land lying between the southern tributaries of the Amazon river, says the New York Globe. Leaving New York on a yacht about Jan. 31, the expedition will arrive at Pernambuco at the close of the rainy season and will at once set out on the journey of 4,000 miles across the southern continent to the Pacific coast.

Mr. Boynton is the last person in the world one would take for a man of adventure. Seeing him recently in an easy chair at the Chemists' club, dressed as a man of fashion and surrounded by the luxuries of modern civilization, one would hardly think that twenty of the thirty-eight years of his life had been spent in strange lands and among savage peoples.

But the tales which he narrates in his well modulated voice are tales of daring and danger, tales of months spent in tangled jungles through which the sun's rays never penetrate, tales of heartbreaking struggles with disease and famine, of death coming in the lightning-like clutch of the huge boa constrictor, in the singing poisoned arrow deadlier than the cobra's bite or in the form of the dread beriberi fever, which drags the strongest man shrieking to the grave in forty-eight hours.

"The almost impenetrable forests of Brazil," said Mr. Boynton in speaking of his proposed expedition, "are, I believe, the most wonderful, the most beautiful and the most terrible places in the world."

"The flooding of the rivers in the rainy season has washed away the earth from the tangled roots of the trees, and in some instances the trunks shoot up from the mass of roots twenty feet above one's head. The heavy foliage with the millions of trailing vines and creepers through which it is necessary to cut a path with machetes forms a dense shade, and I have gone for many days without seeing the sky."

"In the tributaries of the Amazon are found a greater variety of fish than in any other river in the world, and the forests are alive with birds of all kinds of brilliant colors. There are 163 varieties of the humming bird already catalogued, and we hope to add still more to the store of ornithological knowledge."

"Matto Grasso is the name of the region which we will be the first white men to penetrate and means 'tangled forests.' It lies between the fifth and tenth parallels and the fiftieth and seventieth meridians and, as you may see by the map, is marked 'unexplored.'"

"Our party will consist of six well known American scientists and an equal number of Brazilian experts. Then there will be about twelve university graduates and numerous servants, or about fifty in all. Already thirty university men have applied, but I shall insist on a rigid physical examination and shall take only the fittest, as I do not wish our expedition to become a funeral procession."

"We will make an especially fine collection of birds and will send animals to the zoological garden in the Bronx which have never been seen in captivity, such as the big maned wolf, the giant otter, the spectacled bear, Humboldt's logothric, a large species of ape, and the ant eaters."

"In addition we will make a study of the natural advantages of the country, its woods and minerals, and will record as far as possible the languages and customs of the native tribes. The savages, who live only on the banks of the rivers, are in a very primitive state and when aroused are savage fighters."

"We hope to avoid trouble, but will take along aluminium shields as a protection against their deadly arrows if any unpleasantness should arise. They are cannibals in time of war and when there is a famine will eat even their own children. For the most part, however, they are peaceful unless they fear they are about to be attacked."

"Do I think there will be much danger in the trip? Yes, there will be enough for even the most venturesome. There will be danger from the natives, from fever, from poisonous snakes and reptiles and from wild animals—the jaguar, which lies in wait on an overhanging branch, and the peccaries, the vicious wild boars, which gather in great numbers at night and, surrounding a sleeping camp, 'rush' it like a band of Filipino guerrillas. On such occasions you lean out of your hammock and shoot and shoot, but still they come on, and if by chance you should lose your balance and fall"—The explorer smiled.

"Then there are the alligators, which are the largest in the world. But of course all those things must be counted in the day's work."

Mr. Boynton said he knew of certain diamond fields in the district to be covered which he believed might be operated, and there were vast tracts of rubber forests which could be made very profitable if the Brazilian government could be induced to grant concessions.

COURT SETS NEXT TUESDAY

Prospects are for a Very Light
Term of District Court in This County

23 CIVIL CASES ON DOCKET

Sixty-Five Personal Property Tax Cases and Four Criminal Cases Docketed

Clerk of the District Court Johnston informs THE DISPATCH that the term of that court which convenes in Brainerd next Tuesday, December 10, will probably be a very short one. Only 23 civil cases are docketed and probably a number of them will be settled before trial.

On the criminal calendar there are now but four cases and there is apparently little to come before the grand jury. Unless the unforeseen occurs the work of the court in that department will be very light.

There are 65 personal property tax cases on the docket, but in only one has an answer been filed. This is a case against Cuyler Adams. Mr. Johnston says there is apparently no question but that a mistake was made in the assessment and that the property in question did not belong to Mr. Adams.

Judge McClenahan will preside and George W. Moody will act as reporter.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Practical Instruction in Mechanical Drawing and Kindred Subjects to be Given

Arrangements have been completed for the organization of a night school to be conducted under the auspices of the Library Association at the shops and the Y. M. C. A. for the benefit of the members of either association.

The course will include 12 lessons covering practical arithmetic, elementary mechanics, plain geometric drawings, plain projection and plain developments. During the course there will also be short half hour talks upon subjects of special interest including iron, its manufacture and physical composition—steel and the steel industry—heat and fuels—steam, etc.

The classes will meet in the Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening, from 7:20 to 9:30 beginning Dec. 10th, 1907.

No new enrollments will be permitted after the first meeting unless there are special reasons to the contrary.

No charges will be made for tuition but members must provide themselves with the necessary drawing boards, instruments, paper and other material and will be expected to maintain regular attendance and show by their work that they are taking an interest in the matter.

The work will be presented in the form of regular problems to be explained fully in the class room and worked out and turned in at the next meeting of the class.

Those not already supplied with instruments, etc., can order them at the class meeting, when arrangements will be made for purchasing in a lot to obtain special prices. All members must provide themselves with a common note book and pencil before the first lesson.

It is hoped that this work will be properly appreciated by those who have the opportunity to take it for the knowledge and experience to be gained will be very useful especially to those who are or expect to become skilled mechanics in any of the trades.

Badly Mixed Up

Abraham Brown, of Wintertown, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience, he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease, two called it kidney trouble, the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth, stomach and liver trouble, but none of them helped me, so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints by H. P. Dunn, druggist, 50c. mwf

DIRECTORS

HEAR REPORTS

Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday Evening

MEMBERSHIP SHOWS INCREASE

Plans Being Prepared for the Visit of W. H. Day Interna- tional R. R. Secretary

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the association building Wednesday evening. C. D. McKay was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. G. Kroes. Mr. McKay is one of the members representing the Presbyterian church.

Reports were made to the meeting showing that the prospectus being prepared by the association would be ready for distribution at an early date.

The report of attendance upon the gymnasium was very satisfactory. Last month the lowest percentage of attendance of the gymnasium classes was 43.1. This month it is 47.5. The highest attendance last month was 75.6 per cent while this month it is 86.5 per cent.

The total membership of the association on December 1st was 230. The general trend toward an increase of membership is fair but ought to be better.

It is now expected that the class in mechanical drawing will open up next week. Arrangements have been made to get the room ready for use in the way lighting, etc. Other changes in the lighting of the building have also been made which will reduce the monthly light bills.

Several plans and preparations are being made for the coming of Mr. Day, the international railroad secretary, who is expected to arrive in the city Saturday and will spend several days here in consultation over the work.

Bouck-Eckholm

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emiel Eckholm, 1301 East Oak street, last night, when Miss Viola Eckholm was united in marriage to George J. Bouck, of Minneapolis. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and some out of town guests, and the beautiful ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church was read by the Rev. Charles Fox Davis. The event took place at 8 o'clock beneath a richly made bower, banked with spruce, balsam, palms and oleanders, profusely trimmed with pink and white ribbon, with Miss Nellie Nyquist as pianist of the occasion. Fred Eckholm was best man and Miss Ruby Eckholm acted as bridesmaid. The bride was attired in nun's veiling trimmed with real lace, carrying pink carnations and the bridesmaid holding white flowers and wearing blue silk mull. The bride's going away dress was brown serge.

A wedding dinner followed the marriage ceremony, the young couple leaving on the midnight train for Minneapolis where they will make their future home.

The young couple are well and favorably known in Brainerd, the bridegroom being the only son of Alderman George I. Bouck, who is a machinist at the Soo shops in Minneapolis. A large circle of friends hope for them a pleasant life journey.

France and Ireland.

The evergreen strawberry tree is found growing wild only in the south of France and Spain on the continent and in the counties of Cork and Kerry in the British Isles. Certain familiar plants in Ireland are found elsewhere only in the Pyrenees and some portions of Spain and Portugal. A study of the Irish insects and beetles produces equally surprising results. These facts and others lead to the conclusion that there was formerly a continuous coast line between France and Ireland.—Argonaut.

BYSTANDER IS KILLED.

Minnesota Man Shoots at a Bartender and Hits the Wrong Man.

Duluth, Dec. 5.—John Holm, aged twenty-five years, employed by the Cloquet Lumber company at Cloquet, is dead at a hospital there as a result of a bullet fired by John Clark. The deadly missile was intended for John Carlson, an employee of the saloon, with whom Clark had been on bitter terms for several days. Immediately after the shooting Clark escaped into Wisconsin, but was captured at Barron, from which place he will be brought back, providing he consents to come without requisition papers.

Holm, who was an innocent bystander, was at the bar when Clark entered bearing a rifle in his hands, which he immediately aimed at his enemy. Before Holm could get out of range, the weapon was discharged and he received a mortal wound in his abdomen. Carlson escaped uninjured.

WILLIAMS WINS OUT.

Minority Leader in the House Not Shorn of His Power.

Washington, Dec. 5.—By a vote of 124 to 4 the house Democratic caucus voted down the proposition of Representative Jones of Virginia to take the designation of minority members of the committees out of the hands of Minority Leader Williams, and by the same vote adopted a resolution affirmatively placing the power in Mr. Williams' hands.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 5.—A special to the Register and Leader from Fairport, Ia., says that a posse has traced Harry Jones, accused of the murder of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Winkle, to a big woods along the Mississippi river. Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it be believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

CALLS FOR SOLDIERS

Governor of Nevada Asks for Federal Troops.

GOLDFIELD IN A FERMENT

Chief Executive of Nevada Fears That Rioting May Break Out in the Mining City—Troops Ordered to Be in Readiness to Move.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 5.—The executive committee of the Mine Owners' association of Goldfield has received assurance from Governor Sparks that he had called upon Washington requesting troops be held in readiness for use in Nevada mining camps and that a garrison of regulars be established at Goldfield. There is nothing in the immediate situation to require the intervention of troops. The town is as quiet as usual. But it is feared by the mine owners that trouble is brewing and that overt acts might be committed at any time. The strike is at a deadlock and the mine owners purpose to keep the mines shut down until the violent element of the miners' union and the lawless element generally in the camp are compelled to leave.

The miners' union is not prepared to make a long fight, as their treasury is depleted, and it is believed for this reason that the miners will force the issue by violence, as has been threatened. Money has been scarce in Goldfield since two of the banks closed and scrip was resorted to by the third bank, and as all the mines have been shut down for several days, the pinch of poverty is being felt by the miners, who as a rule are improvident, living from hand to mouth. Holdups and burglaries have been frequent of late and there is a general feeling of unrest, which is likely to break out into a general riot before long. It is for protectionary reasons more than an acute situation that has impelled the call for troops.

The miners know that at all the large mining camps in the country, hundreds of miners are walking the streets out of employment and there is no place for the Goldfield miners to go. This is the last stand, apparently, to be made by the Western Federation of Miners, and it is expected they will make a bitter and desperate fight.

ROOSEVELT ISSUES ORDERS

Federal Troops Held in Readiness to Restore Order at Goldfield.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Roosevelt has issued orders to have federal troops held in readiness to aid in restoring order at Goldfield, Nev. This action was taken upon representation from Governor Sparks of that state, that the miners at Goldfield are in revolt and riot. Nevada is the one state in the Union that has no state militia. Governor Sparks does not deem the situation such as to justify immediate federal interference, but as one likely at any time to get beyond his ability to control. The nearest federal military base is at San Francisco, Cal.

How to Get Rid of Fat

A quick, harmless reducer of fat, called Renzo, has come into popular use which far eclipses any method or treatment heretofore used.

Renzo is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and it is chewed like candy. It attacks abnormal tissue with unerring accuracy, and causes a gradual, harmless but effective reduction in weight, and without leaving wrinkles which are nearly always present after taking drugs and other dangerous materials commonly called "anti-fats."

There is nothing "just as good" as Renzo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box, or by mail prepaid, by The Renzo Co., 3151 Renzo Bldg., Detroit, Mich. The company will gladly send you a trial package free by mail, if you will write them direct to Detroit; no free packages at drug stores. For sale and recommended in Brainerd by H. P. Dunn, Druggist.

ON SCHEDULE TIME.

Battleships Rhode Island and Virginia Sail for Hampton Roads.

New York, Dec. 5.—In swirling snow, the battleships Rhode Island and Virginia steamed from the Brooklyn navyyard on schedule time. The former, upon arriving off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, anchored for clearer weather, but the latter, which left her berth several hours later than the other warship, passed out at Sandy Hook and started for Hampton Roads. The Yankton and the Connecticut will sail soon.

The thick weather does not inconvenience the big ships much, but the smaller vessels prefer to stay in shelter during storms, their compasses being more or less awry, because of continued proximity to the quantity of steel at the navyyard.

The admiral will delay the departure of the Minnesota, which was set for Sunday afternoon. She was to have been painted, but the storm interfered and she may not get away before Monday or Tuesday night.

The battleships Illinois and Missouri, which sailed from Boston, got a taste of the storm and made for shelter. The Illinois put in at Provincetown.

NO PAID ENTERTAINMENT.

Ban Is Placed on All Sunday Shows in New York City.

New York, Dec. 5.—There will be no entertainments to which admission is charged in this city next Sunday, if the mayor, police and amusement promoters hold to their avowed intentions.

Consequent upon the decision of Supreme Court Justice O'Gorman, who put a ban on all Sunday shows, those most concerned made plain their positions. Mayor McClellan said:

"The law will be obeyed to the letter."

Police Commissioner Bingham commented:

"When I have such a clear and explicit order I know what to do."

The theatrical men—the term embracing all from impressarios to proprietors of penny arcades—generally declared that they had no wish to defy the courts, and that they could afford to stand the monetary loss if the public was willing to dispense with the sort of entertainment it had been accustomed to enjoy on the Sabbath.

Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Prominent officials of the national government, governors of states, representatives of foreign powers, members of the senate and house of representatives and leaders in all walks of civil life in America participated in the opening of the convention of the national rivers and harbors congress.

What Makes a Woman Look Old?

WRINKLES!

The Arch Enemies of Beauty

When wrinkles come—animation, expression and beauty go. We say: "How old and wrinkled she looks!"

A woman may have a wealth of luxuriant hair, a complexion like a lily and the profile of a Grecian goddess and yet be made conspicuously unattractive by the bright of beauty—wrinkles.

Beauty is in the animation of the features; the bright expression of penetration in the eyes; the clear-cut lines of the "inviting" mouth—and in that indefinable "something" that bids for the envy of women and the admiration of men.

Wouldn't She Be Beautiful if It Wasn't for the Wrinkles?

The above likeness is from a photo, taken last October, of a well-known Chicago lady, who resides at Hotel Wychmere, Eighteenth and Indiana Av., that city. Since then she has taken a course treatment and is now

One of the Most Beautiful Women in Chicago

If you will call at where these goods are on sale, you will receive a booklet, entitled

"HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL"

Showing, on the front cover, a likeness of this superb beauty. Inside the booklet you will find her name and a signed, personal letter in praise of the Burnham requisites. By description and diagram, the booklet clearly shows how this wonderful change was accomplished.

Wrinkles Can Be Entirely Eradicated

But not as easily as some people would have you believe. Wrinkles are stubbornly persistent and yield only to the most skillful treatment. The scientific preparations for this purpose are

E. Burnham's Skin Tightener

Begins the removal of wrinkles by giving the skin new tone and vigor, causing it to contract—the sagging eyelids gradually resume their youthful condition—the furrows on the brow disappear and the hard lines around the mouth grow dim and vanish.

E. Burnham's Skin Food

Completes the removal of wrinkles by strengthening and building up the wasted tissues—stimulates the circulation of red blood through every capillary—rounds out the sunken temples and hollow cheeks—makes permanent the good effects of massage.

E. Burnham's Cucumber Cream

Should be used with this treatment to make the skin clean and elastic, so that the other two preparations can more effectively do their work. The Cream penetrates and dissolves the greasy impurities that have clogged the pores. This allows the Skin Food to pass through them and ACT ON THE TISSUES BENEATH.

CRISIS IN SWEDEN.

King Oscar III and Crown Prince Is Appointed Regent.

Stockholm, Dec. 5.—A serious situation has arisen in Sweden. King Oscar, who is nearly eighty years of age, is in such ill health that he has been compelled to hand over the reins of government to Crown Prince Gustav, who has been formally appointed regent. The illness of the king is such that there is little hope for his ultimate recovery, his heart and kidneys being seriously affected.

Dissensions in the cabinet have arisen, which have resulted in the resignation of the minister of war, Colonel L. H. Tingsten; Minister of the Interior Juhlin and Admiral Dyrssen, minister of marine. Premier Lindman will take temporary charge of the war office and Count Ehrensvaerd and Count Hugo Hamilton have been sworn in as minister of marine and minister of the interior, respectively.
